ARRIVAL OF THE TWENTY-FIFTH REGIMENT OF MASSACHUSETTS.
THEIR RECEPTION IN THIS CITY BY THE SONS OF MASSACHUSETTS—BREAKFAST AT THE ASTOR
HOUSE—SPEECHES, TOASTS AND SENTIMENTS, ETC.
The Twenty-fifth regiment of Massachusetts arrived in this city from Camp Lincoln, Worcester, yesterday morntng, on beard the steamer Connecticut, and were at once marched to the Park Barracks, where the men were provided with retreshments, the officers proceeding to the Astor Holss, where a sumptuous repast awaited them.

The regiment numbers 1,030 men, and compares favor-ably with their comrades of Massachusetts who have attired in the regular army uniform, and carry Enfield rifles. Accompanying the regiment are sixty herses, to-gether with several ambulance and baggage wagens. The recoption breakfast at the Aster House was the Occasion of quite an interesting and patriotic time. At half-past twelve o'clock the officers ast down to breakfast, At the heal of the table several distinguished military and civic personages were seated, among whom were General Euraside and General Walbridge. The father of Celonel Elkworth was also present as an invited guest, and was the object of general interest. Mr. Nathan Jackson, menty-two years old, a resident of Machael and the control of the seateness of the tables. Assoon as the good things provided were disposed of, Colonel Frank E. Howe, agent for Massachusetts in this city, opened the speaking part of the programme in an elegaent actives. He was a disposed to the speaking part of the programme in an elegaent actives. He said:

Colonel Upten and officers of the Twenty-fifth Massachusetts repriment—In bidding you welcome, in behalf of the Sotz of Sassachusetts, to this city and to our hospitalities, my sensations are not wholly untouched by norrow. We recognise you as coming from the homes and selfrients and neighbors of the gallant men who, in that recent unequal but nobly contested battle, have faiten in the glorious cause of their country, which will perpetuate their names forever. I have received a letter describing the first parade after that fearful batte, with less than half the regiment to answer to the roll call—several companies as they marched on to the field numbering isse than twenty men. After the parade the Colonel formed a hollow square. With words never to be forgotten—averts which Colonel Tevens has made manortal—he hats spoke to them:—'Soldiers of Massachusetts—Men of Worcester cominy—with these fearful gaps in your lines, with the recollection of the terrible strucke of Monady fresh upan your thoughts, with the knowledge of the becared and soulsticken once at home, weeping for those whom they will see no more on earth—with that his pital before your eyes filled with wonder and maimed comrades—lask you now whether you are ready again to meet the traitorous foe who are endeavoring to subvert our government, and who are candeavoring to subvert our government, and who are crushing under the iron heed of despotism the Mercale of the great of our country Would you go this moments—with the first part of our country would you go n

The spesser was foundly applanded throughout his delivery.

Lieutenant Harnaway followed Colonel Howe in a lengthy and spirited address. Colonel Upten, of the Twonty-5tth, and Lieutenant Colonel Sprague, followed Mr. Hathaway in appropriate speeches.

Mr. Howe mext tross to prop se three cheers for one whom he was certain they all respected and honored as a rodier and a man. Ho alinded to General Burnsite, (Enthusistic cheers) In the curse of his remarks concerning tene at Burnsite h alinded to the fact of that gallant gentleman having made a promise to make a speech when the work which he had commenced was secomplished. Also that of having received beliets in his hat at the battle of Bull run.

General Reassuns, who rose to respond, was received with tremendo a cheers. When silence was restored he preceded to deliver a short and pithy discourse. Mr. Howe, in speaking of him (the General) had aluded to a promise made by him on a provious occasion when leading a regiment to the seat of war, that he would make no speech until he had achieved the work in which he was then engaged. Now that promise at the present mement could not be properly called into force. The work was not yet flushed, and had bare y commenced. The remark with regard to the bullet heles which the hat of the General bore witness to after the battle of inheren the speaker denominated as another mistake, for they had been made with a penkulie by his or a hand, instead of the dealy missites nam doy the 2 st speake. The pattertim of Connecticut was keeping pace with that of Massachussits, and the Fonth regiment of that State was now among us. When he joined the officers of the regiment a few moments ago they received him with a flattening criticularm, for which he now bug ged to return his thanks. He nover had soon a finer body of men than the Massachusetts Twenty litth. Their countenances expressed their determination to do their duty. He never saw a regiment with which he was better pieased. (Cheers.) They had to average the death of their centracles of the gallant Fifteenth at Bull's Bladf, and he was certain that they were willing and able to do it. With regard to has a fi, the General hope it or enduce thinself threegy this campaign with he approval of his countrymen and the honor of the Union cause. (theers.) He was sure that he would now reason to regret the presence of the Twenty fifth regiment in his division, and hoped that they would have une in blonging to it. (Appluse.)

A poem dedicated to the tegiment by a lady, was also read by Lie cheart Hathaway. General Washridge was present, but did not speak on the occasion. ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF THE TENTH

CONNECTICUT REGIMENT. The lower part of the city was enlivened at an early

cour yesterday morning by the arrival of the Tenth regi ment of Connecticut troops. It is unnecessary to add that they were on their way to the seat of war. They are accompanied by a fine band of music. The men com-posing the battalion seem to be the right kind of mettle, and the officers are gentlemanly and intelligent. Like the cons of this noble State who have preceded the lenth on their way to the war, they are fully equipped with everything necessary for a campaign. After landing the regiment marched up Broadway to the Park, where they partook of refreshments, were presented with a handsome silk regimental flag by the sens of Connecticut residing in New York, and were received by the Mayor. The bearer of the ang was one of the tallest men in the righ-ment. His height is six feet five heckes. The flag will presented by Mr. Chittanden, who spoke appropriately on the occurian, and was received by too. Russed on re-leaf of his command, who likewise made a speech happily suited to the circumstances and occasion. After the review the regiment marched down Broadway to the Camion and Amboy boat, and received much applicant from the populace, who fined the streets on the route. They left the city at two o'clock, after having received the encouraging cheers of the populace of the great child of the great Union. General Ewen.—

Dear Suc—thuying received an appointment as Captain in the Thirteenth infantry. United States Army, and granted a leave of absence by the Secretary of War to assist in the organization of the Irish Brigade, the First regiment of which I have the honor to be Colonel, and which will soon be on its march to the seat of war, I hereby tender my resignation as Leutenant Co.onel of the Sixty-ninth regiment. New York State Mittle. In doing so I cannot take my leave of your command without expressing my sincere thanks for the many acts or kindness. I have received at your hands for so many years, while connected with the First division, especially your brigade. I feel sorry at the thought of leaving so many old friends and associates as I have found in the brigade and the old Sixty-ninth—the uniform of which regiment I have always felt a pride in wearing—attached to it. I may say, frein its organization, b ing the oldest officer connected with it, "except its brave and gainant Colonel (Corocard) who is now a prisoner at Charleston, and who refused a regiment, not only that but a brigade to assist in upholding the glorious Stars and Stripes of this great republic." I will ever look back upon the number "co" with pride, and with pleasure of being one of its members. I would, therefore, respectfully request that you grant me a discharge. I sin, dear sir, very truly, yours,

Lieutenant Colonel, Sixty-math regiment.

Our official relations and associations, and in connection with the gainant Colonel Corcoran and the officers of his command, will ever be reverted to with the most pleasing satisfaction. I am much delighted with your good fortune in receiving distinctions to which your military attainments, ability and fidelity as an officer so justily entitle you. The conferring of the same is subservient to the best interests of the country. I shall observe your future course with the most lively interest, ever wishing you the most triumphant success. I have delayed answering your letter until I should receive your certificate of discharge from the Cemmander in-Chief, which please flad here enclosed. # Obitnary. THE LATE COLONEL ALEX. B. ELDER.

We regret that it is our painful duty to record the do-mise of another leader of our noble army of volunteers for the defence of the Union, in the person of Colonel Alexander B. Elder, of the Tenth New York Volunteers, who died in this city on Thursday. Col nel Elder was born in Edinburg, and came to this country in 1835, and at one period was Captain of Company C of the Tempkins Blues, Twelfth regiment, New York State Militia. Soon after the commencement of the rebellion he took an active part in the organization of the Tenth regiment of Volunteers. He was chosen Lieut. Colonel by the proper officers, and upon his arrival at Fortress Monroe, on the resignation of Colonel Methesney, he was unanimous you can be considered by experience and knowledge of military affairs. Colonel Effer, however, did not receive his appointment, but acted as Colonel for three mouths, until the recent appointment of Colonel Dendix. During his brief sejourn at the seat of hostifities he was often placed in dangerous and trying positions, but never inched from the faithful discharge of his duty, and conducted him soft in such a manner as to win the esteem of his brothron in arms. A short time since he came on to New York to recruit his health, and also while here to obtain voluntee s for his regiment; but the disense which he contracted at Fortress Monroe—typhus favor—unfortunately terminated fatally. The funeral services will take place at the house of his sister, No. 731 Third avenue, at one o'clock to-day (Saturday), when his remains will be conveyed to Albany for interment. Volunteers. He was chosen Lieut. Colonel by the proper

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

FRIDAY NOV. 1-6 P. M. The money market is easier. The brokers are paying off their seven per cent loans, as money can be had everywhere at 6, and in many cases at 5 per cent. First class paper ranges from 6 to 7. The asking rates at the bankers were 107% a 107% but we hear of very little business over 107. First class merchants' bills were offered at 106% a 106%. At these rates there is a handsome profit on the importation of gold from Europe, and it must be expected that it will come freely. The features of the stock market to-day were continued strength, with a slight increase of real business. Prices were very brovant at one time and we should doubtless have had to report a considerable advance faroughout the list had it not been for a collapse in Elinois Central, caused by the prevailing understanding that an assessment of five per cent, payable in February next, will be shortly levied on the stock. The price fell at the morning board to 62½, then railied to 63 then fell back again to 62½. This was the weak spot in the market. The most popular stocks of the day were Hudson River, which sold at one time this afternoon at 41%, an advance of 31/4 per cent, and afterwards closed at 41; and Erie preferred, which sold at 561/2, with very large sales-an advance of 2 per cent. It is easy to understand the latter advance, as the preferred stock of the Erie can hardly fail to be worth much mere than it is selling for next year: the advance in Hudson is believed to be merely speculative. The old and wealthy operators who are identified with the property are not understood to have anything to do with the movement. The other railway shares were generally steady. Toledo was 1/2 per cent higher, and Burlington and Quincy 1/2 per cent. Pacific Mail rose 1/2 per cent, and was in demand at the advance. This stock has risen eight per cent within a few days, and is still ten per cent below the point at which it stood when the present arrangement with Commodore Vanderbilt was con summated. A dividend of at least five per cent will shortly be declared, making twenty per cent for the year. State stocks were steady today; governments firm. At the close the market was firm, the following being the last quotations :- United States 6's, registered, 1881, 94 a 1/4: do. 6's, coupon, 1881, 94% a 54%; do. 5's, 1874, 84% a 85; Indiana 5's, - a 80; Virginia 6's, 471/4 a 1/6; Tennessee 6's, 421/4 a 1/2; North Carolina 6's, 50 a 60; Missouri 6's, 441/4 a 3/4; Pacific Mail, 961/4 a 3/4; New York Central, 791/4 a 3/6; Erie, 341/4 a 5/6; do. preferred, 56% a 1/2: Hudson River, 40% a 41. Our importations of dry goods continue very light-only $621,642 for the week, against $1,379,-269 for same week last year. For the year to date we have taken only $39,125,544, against $90,419,823 to same date last year, and $98,170,750 to same date of 1859. Europe has thus lost through the war a market for over $51,000,000 of dry goods in the past ten months. The time limited for depositing the La Crosse and Milwaukee bonds with N. A. Cowdry (No. 29 William street), Secretary of Purchasing Committee, expires to-day. Those bondholders not availing themselves of the opportunity of obtaining new bonds and stock for those deposited will only receive a nominal dividend from the proceeds of the sale of the road.

The business of the Sub-Treasury was light to-day. The banks were reimbursed $649,000, and a call for ten per cent was made upon them for to-morrow. About a quarter of a million was received for Treasury notes. The following is the statement for to-day:-

a semi-annual dividend of three per cent, payable on the 10th inst. The exchanges at the Bank Clearing House this morning were $17,021,135 59, and the balances

$1 384 148 15. The Philadelphia Bulletin of last evening says:-The subscriptions to the national lean at Jay Coke's files in this city, on Tuesday, were $90,000; and of the mount $50,000 were in one subscription, which is mount

These items marked with an asterisk are not included in the total.

Collating the present with the last report (22d of June), we find an increase in "boans and discounts" of $7,578, 477, "cash items," of $50,055, "stocks and promisery notes," of $5,910,264, and a decrease of $3,724,362. Over and above what may have been an ordinary increase of decrease in either of these items, it is found that the New York city banks and some of the country banks report value the first three items the amounts of demand, and the 7,3-10 per cont United States Treasury actes held by the marke, the late action in that respect, and the decrease in "specie" is thus easily accounted for.

On the other hand, there is an increase in the "amount due not included," &c., of $4,579,300, which is made upprincipally by the amount due the Treasury of the United States, under the arrangement is also with the federal give mount, as above referred to, and an increase of che litted of $2,285,507, demanded by the exigencies of the falt trade and the times.
